Census Blocks are the smallest level of spatial aggregation used by the Census Bureau. They are essentially individual blocks within the city. The map clearly identifies the location of the higher density apartment housing. While population density is generally higher east of 72nd Street, isolated areas of high population density can be found throughout the city.

Number of Residents per Sq. Mile

- 81 - 1580
- 1581 - 3079
- 3080 - 4579
- 4580 - 6078
- 6079 - 7578
- 7579 - 9077
- 9078 - 10576
- 10577 - 12076
- 12077 - 13575
- 13576 - 15075