These two base maps depict the major streets in Omaha at two different scales. The city is bisected by 72nd Street, which divides eastern and western Omaha. The major east-west street is Dodge, which curves north slightly around 84th Street and becomes West Dodge Road. Other east-west arteries include, Fort, Maple, Blondo, Pacific, Center, and L Streets. Major north-south streets include 13th, 50th, 84th, 90th, 120th, 144th, and 168th Streets. Interstate 80 cuts through the southern part of the city, connecting to Interstates 680 and 480.
