This map shows the location of stage theatres, movie theatres and art museums. The pattern that emerges is that movie theatres are located in the southern and western suburbs, while stage theatres and museums are in the eastern part of the city between Center and Blondo Streets.